The US Navy established Naval Air Station Lakehurst back in 1921, and it became known as the “Airship Capitol of the World” ! Today, “Naval Support Activity Lakehurst” is part of magnificent joint military installation called Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst. In the early days of its rich, 100 year history, Lakehurst hosted helium-filled dirigibles which traversed the Atlantic, many of them carrying distinguished tourists from Europe to the US in the 1920’s and 30’s. The most famous airship, the Hindenburg, was destroyed in flames upon approach to Lakehurst in May of 1936. This story and more vibrant military history can be explored at the Navy Lakehurst Historical Society’s Heritage Center located on base in Hangar One.

About the Cover

Nestled right off of the Barnegat Inlet and the Atlantic Ocean in Barnegat Light, Viking Village was founded in the 1920s by first-generation Norwegian fishermen.

At the time Viking village was known as "Independent Fish Company." As lobsters became scarce, the gear was modified to catch sea bass. The fishery flourished! Over the years, the dock grew and evolved into scallop, gillnet, and longline fishing that characterizes the operations today! In 1975, the property by then named "Viking Village" was purchased by Capt. John Larson Jr. & Capt. Lou Puskas, where they pioneered tile-fishing in the Mid-Atlantic.

In the present day, the once tiny fishing shacks have been turned into shops including a fish & produce market, a take-out restaurant, a glass studio/gallery, and an antique clothing & decor store to name a few. The village is host to art shows, antique shows, & more!

As an industry leader in commercial fishing production, the village is dedicated to keeping all local fishermen fishing and harvesting responsibly. They take pride in being leaders in a program emphasizing responsibly caught fish and scallops, ensuring minimal impact on the environment and fish habitat. Dock tours are available to learn about the rich history of the village and its daily operations! 1801 Bayview Ave, Barnegat Light, NJ.
